Cooperation between Israeli and Turkish Rescue Units

A delegation including 10 professionals from AKUT- the Turkish Rescue Unit arrived in Israel in April 2010, to train together with members of Israel's Arava Search and Rescue Unit. This special program, under MASHAV's auspices, was held within the framework of a cooperation program existing between the two units, and which includes the exchange of professional knowledge and training in rescue techniques in face of natural disasters. Cooperation activities take place three times a year both in Turkey and in Israel.
