MASHAV-ABC Cooperation

In May 2010, MASHAV organized a professional visit for representatives from the Brazilian Agency for Cooperation (ABC), to examine future cooperation between the two agencies.

Israel-Brazil Cooperation in the Field of Public Safety

MASHAV, in cooperation with the Israeli Embassy in Brazil, the Brazilian Agency for Cooperation (ABC), and the Federal Military Firefighters Corps (CBMDF), conducted in November 2010 in Brasilia, a specially designed course on "Forces Mobilization, Recruitment and Response in Face of Emergency Situations." Over 60 Brazilian professionals participated in the course which covered topics such as disaster management and triage, and included simulation of possible scenarios.

Establishing Trauma and Emergency Unit in Haiti

MASHAV is in the process of establishing a Trauma and Emergency Unit in a hospital in Cap-Haitien, including provision of medical equipment and training of the local medical staff. In November 2010, the Israeli Foreign Ministry through MASHAV shipped over 200,000 doses of medication against the cholera outbreak. A primary cares clinic, established in the city of Leogane, following cooperation between MASHAV-the Sheba Hospital and the Israeli NGO IsraAID, took part in the efforts to stop the cholera epidemic.
