Introductory Note

- I. This Who's Who in Nazi Germany has been prepared for the use of those dealing with propaganda to and about Germany. It is CONFIDENTIAL. The information it contains may be used without restriction, but the source must not be disclosed.
- II. The present fourth edition has been expanded considerably and includes a number of prominent personalities from the realm of industry, finance and trade. In the compilation of this edition emendations and suggestions made in connection with the earlier editions were most helpful. Further collaboration of this kind is invited.
- III. Biographies and photographs of personalities included in this volume as well as more detailed material about many of them and collections of speeches and articles by the more important are available.
- IV. It is hoped to keep this edition up-to-date by the issue at regular intervals of supplements* which will be sent to the recipients of Who's Who in Nazi Germany.
- V. Applications for further copies and for additional material, biographies and photographs should be addressed in writing to :—

THE EDITOR,
Who's Who in Nazi Germany,
Box No. 2,
West Central District Office,
New Oxford Street, W.C.1.

Contents

A number of current German ranks, titles and technical terms are translated or explained in the

GLOSSARY. (Pink pages 3-5)

Throughout the text of this WHO'S WHO, these terms, printed in italics wherever they recur, will not be translated.

A number of current abbreviations of German terms are explained and translated in the

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS. (Pink pages 6-7)

This WHO'S WHO is arranged so as to answer two kinds of questions :-

1. Who is in charge of a given post, organisation or area? Such questions will be answered in the

ORGANISATIONAL PART. (Blue pages 10-44)

Index

2. What are the rank(s), title(s), position(s), age and background of a given personality?

Such questions will be answered in the

ALPHABETICAL PART. (White pages 45-136)

Personalities, who within the last years have held important positions, but have meanwhile died, resigned, been dismissed or transferred to less important ones, will be found in the

SURVEY OF CHANGES. (Primrose pages 137-148)

Supplements

Regular supplements will be issued to keep this WHO'S WHO up-to-date. Until further notice one such supplement (mimeographed) will be sent out to all recipients of this paper at the beginning of every month.

The material contained in these supplements will be divided in two groups :

GROUP I : changes to be entered in writing on pages as indicated.

GROUP II : new or re-written items to be cut out and pasted on spare (left-hand) pages as indicated.

Within these two groups, material will be given in the order of parts and pages of this WHO'S WHO. GROUP II material will always be found on the reverse of pages containing GROUP I material. It will therefore be advisable to finish entering items from the latter before beginning to cut up the Supplement.

NOTE.—These directions will not be repeated in the forthcoming Supplements.
