[1] LEARNING OUTCOMES
The State of Israel is the largest Jewish community ever created in history. By the end of this course you should become familiar with the history of modern Israel, including the legacy of the Holocaust, the ideologies of its founders, its geography, politics, economy, sociology, language, prose, poetry, art, architecture and cinema. The course will also cover Israel’s minority communities of Muslim and Christian Palestinian Arabs, Armenians, Druze, Ba’hai, and Circassians. Finally, the course will survey Israel’s relations and non-relations with its neighbors, its place within a broader international context, and the prospects for Israeli society in the twenty first century. This is not a course emphasizing the Arab-Israeli conflict.

[2] ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES AND GRADING POLICIES
There will be a research project, quizzes, and mid-term and final examinations. These exams will cover lecture material plus assigned readings. The exact scope and form of the exams will be announced at the appropriate time. Readings are due on the specific dates for which they are assigned. Unannounced quizzes based on an assignment are possible on the day they are due. The final exam will be given in the classroom and at the time specified in the spring semester bulletin in the classroom.

Each student must do a research project, details to be provided. Grades will be determined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Midterm</td>
<td>25 percent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Research project: Due before class Wed. April 20</td>
<td>25 percent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final exam: Wed, May 4, 2-4 PM in the classroom</td>
<td>25 percent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reading quizzes, take home geography quiz, and other miscellaneous assignments averaged together</td>
<td>25 percent</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Attendance at all announced examinations is required. Except under very exceptional circumstances, make-up examinations will not be allowed unless the professor has excused the student before the regular exam time for legitimate reasons. Consistent with University policies, graduating seniors can exempt out of the final exam if they wish. In that case, the final grade will consist of midterm 33 1/3%, research project 33 1/3%, and the average of quizzes and other miscellaneous assignments 33 1/3%. Please notify the professor no later than May 2 if you are a graduating senior who wishes to exempt out of the final.
There are no pre-requisites for this course, although a general acquaintance with Biblical history and with the Hebrew and/or Christian Bibles [“Old” and/or “New” Testaments] may be helpful.

[3] COURSE ADMINISTRATION

Office hours: Office hours will be held in TELC Room 3207 on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:20 to 5 PM; on Tuesdays from 8 to 9:40 PM; and by appointment. Students who have questions or concerns about their performance in class or on tests or who would like simply to confer should take it upon themselves to see the professor. If you have any problems or questions please do not hesitate to come by TELC Room 3207 or telephone at 678-839-6034 or 678-839-6508 (leave message).

Methods of Instruction: The course will be taught through lecture, discussion, and a possible outside speakers and film. I encourage you to ask questions and raise issues. We have flexibility in our schedule and can take time to discuss issues you may raise.

[4] TEXTS AND REQUIRED MATERIALS

The texts required for this course are:
S. Ilan Troen, IMAGINING ZION. [New Haven, 2003].

There also will be a number of xeroxed handouts distributed during the course for which you will be responsible.

[5] ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance will be taken. It is most important that everyone try to attend each class session. Anything above three absences in this seventeen week class will be considered grounds for dismissal. Leaving class early constitutes an absence, and two latenesses are the equivalent of one absence. It should be made very clear that (a) students are responsible for all material presented in class; (b) examinations will be based substantially on this material; and (c) a positive attitude shown by an absence of cuts and lateness can work to raise a student’s letter grade in borderline grading situations.

[6] CELL PHONE ETIQUETTE AND OTHER COURTESIES

Out of courtesy to those students trying hard to concentrate, please refrain from smoking, drinking, eating, nail polishing, and chewing gum during class. Please do not bring children to class. PLEASE DO NOT BRING CELL PHONES, AUDIBLE PAGERS, OR ALARM WATCHES TO CLASS. It is not sufficient to say “Oh, I’m sorry, I forgot to turn off.” The student in front of you, behind you, or next to you may be on probation and must do well in this course. It is therefore essential that we have a positive learning environment in the classroom.
ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE. A detailed assignment schedule will be passed out at
